

I would rate my overall experience with Maria a ten. I loved working with Maria. I was a first-time buyer and had a MILLION questions. The first time I met her she sat with me for two hours and went through the entire home buying process. I hadn't even agreed to work with her yet! This helped to ensure there were no major surprises throughout the entire process. I am so happy with the unit I purchased. It was pretty competitive, and I feel like I got it largely due to Maria's expertise. She knew the right offer to make in order for my bid to be accepted over other potential buyers. My new place has many of the items on my original wish list.
